

Go Outside and Play: 10 Ways to Enjoy Summertime in San Diego

Enjoy beer, bites and games at the 15,000 square-foot Mavericks Beach Club.

The heat is on in America's Finest City this summer, when our great outdoors become downright magnificent. We rounded up 10 of our favorite ways to maximize all the county has to offer—a mix of both brand-new and tried-and-true experiences and destinations. As it turns out, San Diego makes for a delightful playground.

Life's a Beach (Club)

Pacific Beach is your quintessential beach 'hood where summer is eternal. In the heart of the action, Mavericks Beach Club has opened in the former PB Bar and Grill space. And it's a stunner. Enjoy cocktails, beer, bites and sunshine at the sprawling club, which spans two levels and 15,000 square feet. The indoor/outdoor venue features five bars, communal tables, a fireplace, outdoor games and TVs to catch the game. At night, Mavericks transforms into a dance club with live entertainment.

860 Garnet Ave., Pacific Beach, 858.999.0348. maverickssd.com